Good Old Dame Wasn't One, Two, Three with Peace Jubilee.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK WERE FEW INDEED

Aside from Functions in Connection with Entertainment of fresidents and Ambassadors and Generals and the Like, Little is Done.

The tremendous attractions at the Transmississippi Exposition and the concomitant affairs down town proved too much for Dame Society last week and she enjoyed very few events save those connected with the memorable Peace Jubilee.

The brilliant pageant that greeted President McKinley on his arrival here gave an opportunity for innumerable parties to view the illuminated streets and floats from grand stands and office windows. Many of these and flags. An orchestra was stationed in were followed by enjoyable supper parties. were followed by enjoyable supper parties. The receptions, banquets and luncheons given in honor of the most distinguished guests Omaha has ever entertained by themselves form one of the brightest periods in the history of the Gate City of the West as host. These affairs were a part of the life of the society folk for more than a week and the representatives of the leading families were kept busy assisting in the details of entertainment. The good wives of the leaders of the Omaha club turned out and worked hard in beautifying the president's apartments and adorning the spacious halls and banquet rooms. They were also on hand with their carriages to convey the cabinet members and diplomats wherever they desired to go. Some of the notable guests were entertained at Omaha residences. Sufficient incidents of interest transpired during the eventful week to make all the teas and receptions that will be held here this season fairly hum with the rehearsal of the nice things Secretary So-and-So said to Mrs. Blank and her lovely daughter.

As society recovers from its abnormal condition superinduced by the president's visit it will gradually transact the pleasant business it has in prospect. A considerable part of this consists in the formal presentation of a dozen young women to the part of the local world over which Dame Society presides. Several of these maidens will make their debut soon after the exposition closes its gates. Both in quantity and quality, in number and attractiveness the buds to be brought out this season are uncommonly rich and give promise of charmingly augmenting the ranks of society devotees.

Adams-Dowling.

A pretty wedding of the week in which there was considerable local interest was that of Miss May Purcell Dowling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dowling of North Bend, Neb., to Mr. Frank L. Adams of Omaha, at the residence of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Pattee, rector of the Episcopal church of Schuyler.

The home was handsomely and appropriately decorated in autumn tints. The bride, accompanied by the bridesmaid, Miss Bessle Smith of Fremont, and preceded by the bride's little sister, Ruth, bearing a basket of roses, entered the parlors to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march and was met by the groom and best man, Mr. Harry P. Dowling. Having taken their places in front of a bank of ferns and palms, with profusion of smilax and roses, the ceremony was performed and was followed by warm congratulations from the relatives and a few Intimate friends present. The bride's gown was white lisse over cream taffeta, with insertion and frills of Wiel Breton lace and carried lilles of the valley. The bridesmaid was attired in a whit mousseline de soie over yellow-corded silk. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the dining room, where elegant refreshments were served. Mr. Adams is assistant manager of Browning King & Co. in this city.

The guests in attendance from a distance were: Mrs. J. S. Adams of Washington, Ia .: Mr. and Mrs. Nat McKee of Memphis Mo.: Miss Hannah Tierney of Delmar, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Adams of Omaha; Miss Bessie Smith and Miss Nannie Stouffer of Fremont. Mr. and Mrs. Adams will be at home at the Madison hotel in this city.

Mrs. Hamilton's Ten.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. C. W. Hamilton gave an English high tea complimentary to Miss Alice Drake and Miss Bellars of Chicago. It was an innovation on the usual feminine tea, as the men were present in considerable numbers to partake of the cup that cheers, but not inebriates. Mrs. C. W. Hamilton was assisted by Miss Hamilton, Miss Mae Louise Hamilton, Miss Anna Shiverick, Miss Adaline Nash, Miss Brown, Miss Peck and Miss Johnson of St. Joseph. The parlor was a dream of beauty embowered in La France roses.

The library was artistically arranged with American Beauties massed with palms. Here Miss Chandler served delicious tea in dainty sevres cups. In the dining room the decorations were similar to those of the library, with the exception of a unique screen of American Beautles built up in the center of the long mahogany, on one side of which Miss Bessie Yates poured chocolate, on the other Miss Grace Allen served ice. In the costumes the tints of autumn were beautifully brought out in silks, velvet and jeweled garnitures.

Entertainments of the Week. The opening ball of the Metropolitan club

Miss Amy Barker delightfully entertained number of friends on Monday evening. Mr. Fred Nash entertained a box party at Boyd's theater last night. Among the number were noticed several young women who will shortly make their debut in Omaha society. The life saving boats were used in a new service on Friday evening in conveying a merry party of young people around the lagoon, ciceroned by Mr. Biddle of Washington, in honor of Miss Drake of Chicago. The party adjourned to the boats from a dinner given by Miss Hamilton.

A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. S. Jonasen on October 9 in Washington hall in honor of their twentieth wedding anniver-sary. Mr. and Mrs. Jonasen were very pleasantly surprised by having two elegant etchings presented to them by their friends. sary. After a banquet and toasts, dancing was in duiged in until a late hour.

The dance of the week was given by Miss Dickinson on Thursday evening at the New York State building in honor of her guest, Miss Wright of Des Moines. The decorason was stunning in a black crepe du chine gown; the guest of honor, Miss Wright, was elaborately gowned in white linene gauze trimmed with Limerick lace.

The lagoon was the scene of a Venetian carnival Thursday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Kirkendall, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Babcock and Mr. and Mrs. Dunn in honor of the Brazilian minister. Hon. Gon-zalo de Quesada, the Cuban charge d'affaires Miss Humphrey and Miss Martin of Washington. The boats were garlanded with flowers and ribbons and hung with vari-colored lanterns. Music was not lacking, as they were accompanied by a gondolier who pleased the guests with his charming Ital-

LONDON SOCIETY ON PARADE Lights of the Swell Set

Attend the Newmarket

Races.

LONDON, Oct. 15 .-- A regular heavy London fog enveloped this city and its suburbs for the first time this season on Thursday Most of the lights of society attended the Newmarket race meeting, which was very rowded and gay. The duke and duchess of Devonshire, who are now the acknowledged leaders of society, had the most distinguished house party. Among the conspicuous figures at Newmarket was Lady William Beresford, the American woman who was formerly Lillian, duchess of Mariborough. She has nearly recovered from her recent accident. Then there was the countess of Essex, formerly Miss Grant of New York. It is announced here that, in order to mark his satisfaction with his daughter, Lady Curzon of Kendleston, the first American vicerine of India; Mr. L. Z. Leiter of Chicago is to present her husband, Lord Curzon, the new viceroy of India, with another London residence in the heart of the diplomatic quarter.

A coterie of aristocrats came to London for the purpose of attending the marriage of Lady Margaret Child Villiers, eldest daughter of the earl of Jersey, to Hon. Walter Fitz-Uryan Rice, son of Baron Dynever, while civic London mustered in great force at the wedding of Miss Florence Davies, daughter of the ford mayor of London, to Mr. Charles Barton, son of Major General Barton, which was followed by a big reception at the residence. The death of Marquis Anglesy on Thursday is another blow to social gaiety this season, as it sends half the peerage into nourning. The new marquis of Anglesy, only son of the deceased marquis, was born in 1875, is of boyish appearance, unmarried and inherits £300,000 a year.

Memorial to Washington

The prince of Wales is now able to walk with comparative ease, but he limps perceptibly. His royal highness will shortly commence a round of the country houses. Sir Lepel Henry Griffin, formerly chief political officer of Great Britain in Afghanistan and a well-known writer on Indian sublects, in addressing a meeting this week at Luton on the subject of the suggested Anglo-American union, said Colonel John Hay, the former United States ambassador at London and present secretary of state, wrote to him on leaving England, saying: "I sometimes think that the only advantage we yankees possess over you is that we have two native countries while you have only one." Colonel Hay appears also to have given his opinion of the suggested Washington memorial in England, expressing approval of the scheme, which he regarded as being in the highest degree magnapimous. He remarked that it had been the first country which had presented a memorial to the man who had beaten its people in arms, adding that the subscriptions must come exclusively from Englishmen, as, naturally, citizens of the United States could not participate in any way.

Since John Kensit's anti-ritualistic crusade, churchmen have been awaiting anxiously for the utterance of the archbishop of Canterbury on the grave questions raised which have agitated the whole body of churchmen. In a series of charges to the clergy delivered this week, the primate spoke in no uncertain voice. He caused profound impression in church circles and deeply aggrieved the low church party. The primate declared plainy that the doctrine of the real presence as embodied practically in the doctrine of non-substantiation, is permitted, though not expressly taught, by the church of Enfgland; that, although compulsory confession is absolutely illegal, voluntary confession is legal, and no clergyman is justified in refusing to hear it, and he commended prayers for the dead, but forbade invocation of the saints or the virgin. He Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Dodson received declared the elevation and reservation of the sacrament and use of incense are non-permissable, but he approved of a certain re-Mrs. Sam Finlayson and children left for vival of the ritual, in conformity with the an extended visit at the old home of Mrs. prescriptions of the prayer book. Practically, prescriptions of the prayer book. Practically, the primate sanctions all the doctrines and practices which the low churchmen have so vehemently condemned, and the high churchmen are proportionately elated. Though they disagree with some points, most of th clergy will fall into line with the primate's charges, or injunctions. Kensit, whose followers have been somewhat shaken, proposes a demonstration in a thou-and churches during the first Sunday in November.

A curious method of aiding charities has been initiated in Paris, where, it is announced, the salons of the high aristocracy which have hitherto been extremely exclu sive, will be opened to strangers on recep tion days for a money consideration, which will be applied to the charitable works, of Mr. and Mrs. Clough and children of which the lady of the house is a patron. The list of the names advertised includes those of the Duchess de la Rochefoucauld, the Duchess d'Uzes, the Vicomtesse Janse and the Marquise Castreu. The privilege has already been utilized by a number of wealthy foreigners, among them being well known Americans. One American who at tended the picture exhibition of the Vicom tesse Janse, gave 500 francs for the fund raised to relieve the sufferings of the wounded soldiers and sailors of the Spanish American war. The vicomtesse, however, intended that the money should be given to Spaniards exclusively, whereupon the visitor requested that his subscription be cancelled One of the leading features of the lore mayor's procession this year will be a car emblematic of Anglo-Saxon origin, Brit tannia and Columbia, the central figure being surrounded by the British colonies.

Honor Soudan Soldiers. The returned Soudan soldiers continue to have a glorious time in London. Many theaters are entertaining them in batches of several hundred and scenes of great enthusiasm are witnessed inside and outside the returned Grenadiers and 500 of his men were the guests of the Shaftesbury theater last night, where they greatly enjoyed a performance of "The Belle of New York."

Norman J. Norman, who is Manager Lederer's representative here, has a revolution on his hands which threatens to disrupt the "Belle of New York" company. It seems that, in accordance with the law, the box office of the Shaftesbury theater made a return of all the salaries paid to the income tax authorities and the latter this week demanded that all the members of the company receiving over £160 ($800) yearly, pay the income tax. Edna May Rankin, Davenport, Sullivan and other leaders rebelled. They say they are American citizens and will not pay a British tax adding that they will return to the United States in preference to paying. They then appealed to the consul general of the United States here, Mr. W. M. Osborn, but the latter replied that he was unable to help them. The result will probably be that the Republican City Convention Transacts Its Business Quickly.

IREY ALONE SECURES A RENOMINATION

Combination Between the Fourth Sixth. Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Wards Carries Off the Honors.

Though it took some time for it to get started, the republican city convention to nominate five candidates for the Board of Education did its work last evening in a rapid and enthusiastic style. It nominated G. G. Irey of the Fourth ward, Dr. Fred E. Teal of the Sixth, Charles S. Hayward of the Seventh, Charles E. Black of the Eighth and Arthur M. Cowie of the Ninth on a single ballot. This combination had been agreed upon in the afternoon, except that the Fifth ward had been led to believe its candidate W. T. Graham, would prove to be one of the successful. Instead, Graham got only the prine votes of his ward.

below and Simon Benswanger and family of St. Joseph came to Omaha yesterday for a few days at the exposition. nine votes of his ward.

Chairman T. K. Sudborough of the city

ommittee called the convention to order in Washington hall about 8:30. He reminded the delegates that a year ago the republican convention had exercised the wisdom of putting into the field a ticket that had received Gardner, all of Chicago, are at the Murray one of the highest majorities in the history of the county and he hoped the same wisdom would be manifest this time. He had lately visited as many as 1,500 houses in the city and had found the sentiment overwhelmingly in favor the republican success this Whoever the candidates might prove to be, let every man, said he, leave the hall a republican in the full sense of the word. The city committee had selected John G Kuhn of the Fourth ward as temporary chairman. Mr. Kuhn also advised putting a strong ticket into the field. Sam T. Wiggins of the Ninth ward was made temporary secretary. There being no contests, the credentials which had been handed to the committee were declared the list of accredite delegates. On a motion by E. Benedict of the Fifth ward the unit rule was adopted to govern the votes of the different ward delegations and immediately the temporary organization was made permanent and the nominations began.

Bringing Out the Names. It was decided on a motion by Benedict wards, an amendment being accepted to shut off speechmaking. The First ward led off with R. C. Jordan, the Second followed with Andrew Kiewit and the Third with Rev. J. C. C. Owens. The other candidates who have already been mentioned were named in the order of their wards. There ATOR, which is absolutely harmless, and was some slight hitch about Owens' nomination, as it was first announced that the Third ward had no candidate.

A ballot was at once attempted, but all the wards passed. John Henderson of the Third tried to have a recess taken of fifteen minutes, J. T. H. Woods of the Eighth giv ing it a hearty second. Henderson immediately withdrew his motion, but Woods would not agree, so the question was about to be put when a tabling motion abruptly killed it by a tremendous vote. The second ballot resulted in the selection of the five candi-

As before the First, Second, Third and Fifth wards passed, but the Fourth broke the ice by giving nine votes for Irey, eight for Teal, one for Kiewit and the full ward strength for Hayward, Black and Cowie. The Sixth. Seventh, Eighth and Ninth gave their full vote for Irey, Teal, Hayward, Black and Cowie, the Eighth afterwards changing one Cowie, the Eighth afterwards changing one from Black to Owens, which was Woods' DAVIES.... vote. The First then voted for Jordan, Klewit, Hayward, Black and Cowie: the Second, for Jordan, Kiewit, Owens and Hayvard, dividing its vote between Irey and Black; the Third for Jordan, Kiewit, Owens, Hayward and Cowie and then the Fifth, saying it would do as it had promised, cast ts vote for Irey, Graham, Teal, Black and Cowie.

As it was apparent who were to be th vinners early in the balloting the call was frequently interrupted with cheers and as he final vote was stated it was greeted with terrific yells. The result of the ballot was Jordan, 27; Kiewit, 28; Owens, 19; Irev 814; Graham, 9; Teal, 53; Hayward, 72; Black, 681/2 and Cowie 72. The yells broke forth again when Chairman Kuhn announced the result in favor of Irey, Teal, Hayward, Black and Cowie.

Before adjournment the face of John I Webster was observed at the door and there vere calls for him. He had heard the republican warhoop, he said, and he made a speech predicting republican success all 'down even to Walker" with a majority in

Douglas county of 3,000. New City Committee.

POPULISTS TAKE THEIR MEDICINE.

Endorse Democratic School Board Ticket After a Stormy Session.

The city convention of the populist party net last night in the committee rooms to decide upon a course of action with referthe places of amusement. The colonel of ence to selecting a candidate for the Board of Education. P. L. Quinlan, chairman of the committee, called the meeting to order A chairman and secretary were then chosen J. B. Jones and E. F. Rutherford receiving the appointment and they presided over a stormy session.

After protracted discussions and repeated expressions of dissatisfaction at the treatment accorded them by the democrats it was decided to select a single candidate to fill the place made vacant on the democratic ticket by the withdrawal of Charles B. Wilson, and John Jeffcoat was the man There were several speakers who advo-ated the plan of selecting an entire ticket to run in opposition to the democrats. They expressed dissatisfaction because the silver republicans were allowed to fill two places on the ticket and the populists only one but in the end the fusionists prevailed and the democratic nominees, with the addiion of Jeffcoat's name, were endorsed. The final business of the meeting was the selection of a city committee, as follows: First ward, M. Cavenaugh, J. W. Most of the theaters have been playing to Burnett, M. O'Connel; Second ward, P.
